The Hamptons is revered the world over for many reasons, but among the foremost is its stunning architecture—a mastery of traditional styles on display. For Michael Derrig and his team at Building Details, that expected quality level is the vision behind their East Hampton work. “Our philosophy is simple: perfection is in the details,” Derrig says. “We deliver the highest caliber of custom construction.” With more than 20 years of experience building fine homes in the Hamptons, starting with his own, Derrig understands the region and its residents. “They are mindful of the traditional architecture, but also want every modern convenience, including large-scale rooms and more contemporary interiors,” says Derrig, who also owns Landscape Details. “Listening is key. We’ve become experts at finding a balance between beauty and budget; timing and timelessness.”

“Best-kept secret? The fresh mozzarella at Red Horse Market and the sweetest corn at Pike Farms. Anything else I share will make me unpopular with my friends.”

UPKEEP TIP TRIO

Derrig shares three must-dos to keep one’s Hamptons home as pristine as the blue waters.

- The wind, salt and sun can beat up on wood and more. It’s critical to work with a trusted team that is safeguarding your home and maintaining it often.
- Landscape maintenance is also critical. In fact, Building Details has a sister company called Landscape Details.
- Invest in a generator. You don’t want your pipes to freeze in a power outage.

IDEAL HAMPTONS MORNING

“I have dogs and I’m an early riser, so I think there is nothing better than watching the sun come up at Georgica or Wiborg Beach and letting the dogs run around,” Derrig says. “When my kids are home they join me and my wife, Dwyer, in this routine.”
